

Film Requirements and Restrictions for Creativity

Print this sheet off and circle the restrictions for your project. Remember, limitations foster creativity and challenge the mind to solve problems in an efficient and direct way. They help to give your mind focus, direction, and ideas.

Minimum scenes     1     2     3     4     5

Minimum characters     1     2     3     4     5

Locations that must be used:

Office	Elementary school	Garage
Barn	Swing set	Woods
Graveyard	Gas station	Park
Inside of a car	Hospital	Restaurant
Church	Farm	Store
Basement	Kitchen	Livingroom
Elevator	Beach	Playground
Campsite	Doctor's Office	Athletic Court

Activities that need to be seen or heard in your film somewhere.

Sport	Board game	Riding a bike
Pool	Meeting	Fixing car
Painting	Darts	Riding in a car
Construction	Cooking	Cleaning
Drawing	Exercising	Camping
Hiking	Road trip	Swimming
Church	Large event	Under attack

Someone must say ONE of these lines:

“I can’t believe you ate that.”	“I had no idea it would smell like that.”
“So that’s what happens when you wash it.”	“Why does this always happen to me?”
“Does that always happen to you?”	“ You said I could do it if you won.”
“Your parents are gonna kill you.”	“I was so sad to hear about your brother.”

You must use at least ONE of the props:

Balloon	Pet	Baseball bat
Bullwhip	Flowers	Motor oil
Half-peeled orange	Gum	Flour
Hay	Dumbbell	Fishing rod
Mousetrap	Credit card	Handcuffs
Yo-yo	Sweatband	Jumper cables
Sippy cup	Soap	Suit
Animal chew toy	Hockey stick	Walkie-talkie
Present	Shoe	Photo
Umbrella	Bracelet	Ball

Restrictions – you CANNOT have:

- People playing video games
- Anything in the High School
- A character alone in a scene
- People talking on a phone or texting
- Dialog containing: dude, man, bro, well, anyways, alright, hi, bye
- Someone running away
- All other content restrictions